A time to remember for Heinsburg Class of 2008

By VICKI BROOKER

Staff Writer

Heinsburg Community School held their 2008 farewell ceremonies Friday evening in a gymnasium transformed with bright spring colours to honour Becky Quinney and Kelsey Castor as they complete their high school studies.

Elders Donald Quinney and Melvin Abraham asked blessing on the banquet, which was followed by a toast to the parents by Becky Quinney, Joey Quinney replied to the toast, noting that, "as parents, we always hope and pray for the best for our kids. God bless the road you will be taking. It doesn't just take parents, it takes others to get the best out of you, and Heinsburg did a pretty good job. Thank you all for helping us to raise our daughter."

Kelsey Castor toasted the staff and expressed gratitude for "the time and dedication our teachers have taken to share their knowledge and inspiration with us." Peter Rasmussen replied, wishing the two "all the best as you make your way from here."

After a short break, the ceremonies resumed with the processional. Becky Quinney read a poem of invocation, before performing the traditional duty of passing on the school colours to Grade 11 student Lynette Paul.

Everyone sat back and enjoyed "the life and times of Kelsey and Becky" in a slide presentation.

Marjorie Scott brought greetings and gifts from the Heinsburg Community Club, and said it was "wonderful to see you reach this first big milestone. Wherever you go, take a little bit of Heinsburg with you."

Melvin Abraham spoke on behalf of the council members of Frog Lake First Nation on this "special day for two special people." He thanked the parents, grandparents, chief and council and dignitaries before presenting an eagle feather to Kelsey Castor, saying, "As the eagle flies high, so will your dreams and aspirations... ask the eagle spirit to guide you."

Golfers swing for STARS

By VICKI BROOKER

Review Staff

Elk Point Emergency Services held their ninth annual golf tournament in support of STARS last Wednesday, with 20 teams registered for 18 holes of golf, followed by a steak barbecue, silent auction and draws for a mountain of draw prizes.

Wes Wagar thanked the golfers on behalf of the tournament's organizing committee, and presented a cheque for $13,500 from last year's tournament to STARS representative Paul Mayfield.

Mayfield told the group that STARS has bases in Calgary, Edmonton and Grande Prairie, and has conducted 16,000 missions to date.

"Donations like this help," Mayfield said. "It all adds up."

He said 2008 is an "exciting year" for STARS, with a new helicopter scheduled to arrive in November that has twice the range of the current units, as well as a larger cabin which will allow it to be equipped with "far superior equipment."

Mayfield presented Wagar with a large framed picture of a STARS crew at work, which Wagar added to the silent auction, noting that Elk Point has donated a total of $125,000 from their tournaments in the past eight years.

This year's low score award, sponsored by JPD Enterprises, went to the Elk Point Golf and Country Club team, made up of Wayne Mudryk, Ian Begg, Don Mudryk, Preston Krankowsky and Shaina Gadowski.

A time to remember for Class of 2008

Donald Quinney, who presented an eagle feather to Becky Quinney, advised her to "enjoy every day. Hang onto life as much as you can. If you have love for yourself as you have for others, you will go a long way."

Lorraine Moyah, a 1977 grad of Heinsburg School, also spoke on behalf of Chief George Stanley and council, and said, "This is a solid school. It is wonderful that you made it this far. We encourage you both to further your education." She presented jackets to both graduands.

Principal Jill Jackson presented scrolls held in the paws of whimsical dancing dogs.

Kelsey Castor gave the class address, saying, "we all have to be thankful for each day the Great Spirit gives us, and to live each day to the fullest. Our elders always advise us of this. Our elders also tell us that there is no 'goodbye,' only 'till next time.' This day we will all enjoy together, share laughs and joy. Our lives will go separate ways, but always our paths will cross again."

Terry Dion entertained with a Garth Brooks song.

St. Paul Regional Division school board chair Darrell Youngmans, also a HCS alumna, told the graduands they were "very lucky. You had the choice of two schools, and we're glad you chose Heinsburg. This is one of those pomp and ceremony days, and I'd like to congratulate Principal Jackson and her fiancé Colin Greening on their engagement this morning. The last day of June is the day you've been waiting for. Your school years are the most structured years you may ever know. I hope as a school community and family, we have given you the tools to work with."

"It's clear that you have made the choice to step forward," Chief Deputy Superintendent of Schools Glen Brodziak said. "Celebrate the joy of achievement, and remember the significant people in your life who gave you sport and helped teach you life lessons. Don't forget to thank those special people in your lives."

As the chair of the Frog Lake Board of Education, Melvin Abraham brought wishes for the best in the future, and advised, "Keep your chins up."

"Now that you have graduated, nothing can stop you." Lynn Stanley, Director of Education. "A diploma is the first big step. We are continually learning, and you will always be a student. Be aware of what you learned at home and school and remember to take time to help others. As life hands you challenges, face them. May your new path take you wherever you want to go."

Youngmans presented gifts from the school board and county, and brought gifts and a message of congratulations from MLA Ray Danyluk, noting that Alberta has one of the best educational systems in the world and with students like the 2008 graduates, "Alberta is in good hands now and in the future. Your potential is unlimited."

Marjorie Quinney sang, "I Do it Anyway" in honour of the graduands.

June Jenkins addressed the graduates, likening the time they have spent at school to climbing a mountain. "You have finally made it to the top, a destination that marks a new beginning. The possibilities are breathtaking, as you choose the path you will take." She advised them to use their uniqueness. "You have a unique opportunity and so many possible jobs. Find your perfect fit, and be uniquely you. Discover your strengths and talents."

Marie Zayac, mistress of ceremonies for the evening, advised the students to "be proud of this day. The future will have just what you make it. Reach far." She wished them both a happy future.

Principal Jackson had the traditional last word, adding her congratulations and saying, "the staff is very proud of you." She read an inspiring poem to conclude the ceremonies before the graduands left the stage to spend the rest of the evening with family and friends.

Growing Forward 2008 Advance Payments Program Federal Assistance to the Livestock Sector

Through the Advance Payments Program (APP), producers can get repayable cash advances to help improve their cash-flow.

As part of a national action plan to help hog and cattle producers, improvements have been made to the APP for 2008 to give livestock producers easier access to cash advances, including:

- Removing the requirement for livestock producers to use a Business Risk Management (BRM) program as security for a cash advance and allowing producers to use only inventory as security. Producers are still required to participate in an eligible BRM program to get a cash advance.
- Declaring that a state of severe economic hardship exists for the cattle and hog sectors so that emergency advances of up to $400,000 are available to eligible producers for the 2008-09 production period.

To apply for the 2008 APP, contact a participating producer organization by visiting agr.gc.ca/app or call 1-888-346-2511.

Sports

The final St. Paul Athletic Association sporting event of this school year took place last Tuesday at St. Paul Regional High School. There, the top junior high track athletes in the area competed against one another in the SPAA junior high track and field championships. The weather outside for the event was sunny and clear, a perfect way to close out the school year in athletics.

When all was said and done, the same school that usually dominates this event once again came away on top. Racette School athletes had to dig deep and put it out the entire day and fight off Glen Avon, Mallaig School, Glendon and F.G. Miller, but at the end of the day, they would have just enough points to pull away from the rest of the pack and come away as SPAA champions for another year. Racette finished with 1,076 points and came in first place in both the boys and girls categories. Glen Avon would come away second with 948.50 points and Mallaig School finished third with 914 points. Glendon finished fourth with 845 points and F.G. Dads' turn for praise

A few weeks ago, we talked about all the things mothers do in our community. This week, it's the dads' turn.

Dads do a great deal more than go to work every day and bring home a paycheque, to be met at the door by the little woman with his paper and slippers. That is a very outdated stereotype that doesn't fit 99 per cent of today's families.

For one thing, dads don't necessarily come home right at five o'clock, demanding supper. They're more likely to be working until eight or nine p.m. in an oil truck or on the tractor, and may not always have time to coach ball or hockey, work bingos and volunteer for community causes and do all the things with their kids that they would like to do. When they get time off, they make up for the time they may have missed, and their children are extra happy to spend some quality time with Dad.

"Just wait until your father gets home" is no longer a threat - it's a promise of good times to come, in the company of a treasured parent.

Have a great Father's Day, and make some great memories with your dad.

Way Back When...

Mill rates, milestones and 4-H champions

HERE'S THE NEWS THAT MADE THE HEADLINES OF THE LAKELAND REVIEW AND THE ELK POINT REVIEW FOR THE WEEK OF JUNE 10 IN...

1988

Elk Point Town Council held the line on mill rates for municipal operation, with the only raises coming in the school requisition and a .594 mill hospital district requisition, both of which were beyond the control of the town. Doyle Skolarchuk showed Heinsburg's grand champion 4-H steer, while Henry Thomson showed the reserve champion.

1993

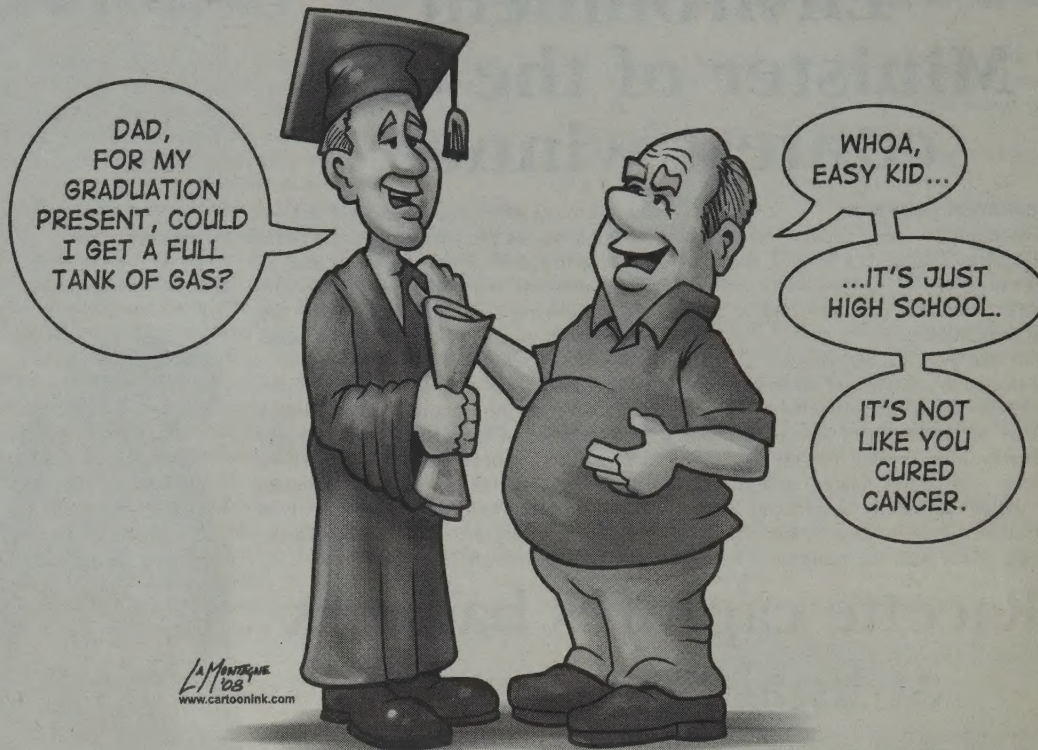

David Naber showed the grand champion steer at Elk Point 4-H Achievement Day, while sister Dorothea showed the reserve champion steer, Carrie Piotrowski the supreme champion female and Robyn Danyluk the reserve champion female. Heinsburg's Class of '93 valedictorian Sara Daniels said hers is "the generation knocking at the door to adult life."

1998

Elk Point 4-Hers Amanda Ference and Colin Ference proudly brought home the St. Paul District 4-H Steer Show grand and reserve champion banners, while Jaylynn Wirsta, Taralee Babenek and George Danyluk brought home showmanship and grooming trophies and Cody Kurek, Mark Ference, James Babenek and Peter Danyluk won the team judging. The ribbon was cut to reopen the newly remodeled F. G. Miller High School, with a whole family of students' union presidents - dad Walter Ference (president in 1967) and daughters Wanda Cochrane (1987), Angel Ference Zarowny (1988) and Candace Hodder (1993) - among those in attendance.

2003

Heinsburg Community School's Class of 2003 stood at the edge of a dream as Natalie Youngchief gave the class address, telling teachers, family and friends that "our success is your success." Nichole Havenor's steer advanced from club champion to district champion at the St. Paul District 4-H Steer Show and Sale, later selling for an excellent price of $3.20 per pound.

GUEST COLUMN

Double event

There is a story which talks about trust honor, and duty. "Rupert stood by the side of the road watching an unusual number of people hurry past. At length he recognized a friend. 'Where are all of you going in such a hurry?' he asked.

"The friend paused. 'Haven't you heard?' he said.

"I've heard nothing," Rupert answered.

"Well," continued (the) friend, 'the King has lost his royal emerald. Yesterday he attended a wedding of the nobility and wore the emerald on the slender golden chain around his neck. In some way the emerald became loosened from the chain. Everyone is searching, for the King has offered a reward ... to the one who finds it. Come, we must hurry.'

"But I cannot go without asking Grandmother," faltered Rupert.

"Then I cannot wait. I want to find the emerald," replied his friend.

"Rupert hurried back to the cabin at the edge of the woods to seek his grandmother's permission. 'If I could find it we could leave this hut with its dampness and buy a piece of land up on the hillside,' he pleaded with Grandmother.

"But his grandmother shook her head. 'What would the sheep do?' she asked. 'Already they are restless in the pen, waiting to be taken to the pasture - and please do not forget to take them to water when the sun shines high in the heavens.'

"Sorrowfully, Rupert took the sheep to the pasture, and at noon he led them to the brook in the woods. There he sat on a large stone by the stream. 'If I could only have had a chance to look for the King's emerald,' he thought. Turning his head to gaze down at the sandy bottom of the brook, suddenly he started into the water. What was it? It could not be! He leaped into the water, and his gripping fingers held something that was green, with a slender bit of gold chain. 'The King's emerald!' he shouted. It must have been flung from the chain when the King (astride his horse, galloped across the bridge spanning the stream, and the current carried) it here.'

"With shining eyes Rupert ran to his grandmother's hut to tell her of his great find. 'Bless you, my boy,' she said, 'but you never would have found it if you had not been doing your duty, herding the sheep.' And Rupert knew that this was the truth."

This story could be likened to Father's Day, which is being celebrated this coming Sunday. Even though fathers sometimes have other things they would like to do, when they do what only fathers can do best with their children, there are rewards. Therefore let us say Happy Father's Day to all fathers.

The double event of June 15th this year is not only Father's Day - it is also "World Elder Abuse Awareness Day". World Elder Abuse Awareness Day was first proclaimed in 2006 by the International Network for Elder Abuse to bring attention to the issue of elder abuse and neglect.

Financial abuse is the most frequent form of abuse. Financial abuse occurs when a senior's money, financial resources or property are used or accessed without his or her consent or understanding. This may involve stealing a senior's money or possessions; misusing his or her bank or credit cards; or misusing a power of attorney through fraud, trickery, theft of force. Seniors who are victims of abuse are often reluctant to speak out about the abuse, especially if the abuser is a trusted person in the senior's life, such as a spouse, family member (often an adult child), caregiver or friend.

So when you think about it, Sunday, June 15th - the double event day, is really a day families need to remember. Emeralds found, appreciated or abused. You decide.

Sox slam Cold Lake Cardinals

It's really nice when the days get longer and you have enough daylight to get a decent ballgame in before dark on a weeknight.

Tuesday night in St. Paul, the Sox took on the Cold Lake Cardinals with a 7 p.m. start and played until dark, finishing a full game. A month ago you might only get in three or four innings, of course a month ago there was still snow on the ground. Russell

Sparkling-eyes on the hill for the Sox going three innings, Evan Joly and brother Sean coming in, sharing the relief duties, the boys winning this one by 10 runs in the bottom of the sixth. It sounds easier than it was, it was a close game most of the way through, the boys only taking a big lead in the last at bat, before that it was up for grabs and could have been anyone's game. Clean up batter Evan Joly coming up with two big triples, the last one clearing the loaded bases to finish the game, Brett Romanovich with two singles, Dustin Berg with a single and two RBI, and "Sonny Boy" Benson with a RBI single.

Sunday afternoon the boys took a drive up to Lac La Biche to take on the Dodgers, losing this one 7 to 3. Brett Romanovich on the mound to start going three innings, the Sox winning at this point 3 to 2, "Sonny Boy" Benson, Levi "Big Pappy" Bull and Jordan "Bacon" Leroux all coming out of the bullpen and getting a turn on the rubber, the Dodgers picking up another five runs in the fifth inning, but the Sox sticks went silent in this one and were unable to manufacture any runs. "Bacon" with two singles, "Sonny Boy" with a single, other that there was nothing very much to report.

Tonight the Sox return to Cold Lake for game two of the home and home series, and coming up this weekend, the Sox will meet the Edmonton Warriors in Vegreville on Saturday. The last time these two team met, it wasn't pretty for the Sox, losing both game by big scores, on a very miserable drizzly day back in May at Bassett Field, the Warriors giving our boys a lesson in batting. This coming weekend we are hoping to return the favor.

In other action this past week, the peeewe girls team improved their record to 5 and 0 after defeating St. Paul on Monday night and Cold Lake on Wednesday. Tomorrow night the peeewe girls take on Cold Lake First Nations at 6.30 p.m. here at home. Come out and cheer them on.

And down in Red Deer this past weekend, the Lakeland Pink Panthers, a peeewe provincial team that consists of five Elk Point girls, four from St. Paul and two from Cold Lake won all three games, 15 to 5 in the first, 12 to 7 in the second and 9 to 5 in their third.

And now for the K.A. Campbell quote of the week." Baseball is almost the only orderly thing in a very unordered world. If you get three strikes, even the best lawyer in the world can't get you off." Last weeks answer to: "Baseball is the only sport I know that when you on offence, the other team controls the ball." - Ken Harrelson.

St. Lina, St. Paul steers top District 4-H Show and Sale

By VICKI BROOKER
Staff Writer

Steers shown by St. Lina 4-H Beef Club member Shaina Vallee and St. Paul Multi Club member Jon-athan Kotowich received the congratulatory slap of approval from judge Kevin Wirsta in the Parade of Champions at the June 2 St. Paul District Inter-club Show and Sale.

Vallee's 1,326-pound grand champion won her the Prairie Tech Oilfield Services banner and the St. Paul District 4-H Council trophy, and sold to RPM Contracting for $2.75 per pound.

Kotowich's 1,339-pound reserve champion, named the St. Paul club's grand champion two days earlier, was awarded the Shamrock Valley Enterprises banner and the County of St. Paul No. 19 trophy, selling to Dechaine Enterprises for $2.70 per pound.

The champions were chosen from a field of 12 finalists picked from 67 steers in six weight classes earlier in the day.

Nicole Brousseau and Roxanne Feland were MCs for the District Show.

Marc and Arlyss Lehman judged showmanship, Jacqueline Caouette judged grooming and Michael Fontaine the card judging. Terry Holmgren and a mystery judge determined the winners of stall and club displays, while Pat Maarcoux and Poncho St. Arnault served as ringmasters.

Great yards rewarded in Canada Day contest

By VICKI BROOKER
Review Staff

Get those yards in shape, everyone – the Canada Day house and yard decorating and beautification contests is coming up soon.

Information about the contest was sent out with the May water bills, so residents would have ample opportunity to plan and plant attractive floral displays and to prune, weed and prepare for the June 30 judging tour.

This year, in response to concerns regarding previous contests, the committee states that "live plants are preferred" over artificial flowers and greenery.

Yards will also be judged on their Canada Day decorations, their overall attractiveness and curb appeal.

Once again this year, entrants are asked to register their yards so they can be included in the judging. Please leave your name, street address and phone number at the Elk Point Review during business hours, Tuesday through Friday, 9 a.m. to noon and 1 p.m. to 5 p.m. Entry deadline is noon on Friday, June 27, and only yards registered by that time will be judged.

Entrants' yards will be identified by a special marker prior to the judging. Prizes will be awarded during the Canada Day afternoon stage show.

Art Show

Donna Chamberland told the Canada Day Committee at last week's meeting that plans for the Canada Day art show on the lower level of the Elks Hall are going well. A high school student who has been chosen for a fine arts program will be exhibiting, along with six or seven area artists and a number of Elementary School students, in addition to the featured display of works by the late Ralph Kryvenchuk.

Display venue to be determined

Ray Hellquist has agreed to once again display his historical information regarding area schools from 1930 until their closing. The site for the display, slated for Canada Day afternoon, is yet to be determined, and will be announced as soon as it is finalized.

Canada Day Idol

Dee Pankiw reported that entries are coming in well for the Canada Day Idol talent competition, with the first 20 paid entries to be accepted for this new addition to the Canada Day lineup, which starts at 8:30 p.m. at the Elks Hall, with free admission to come and hear some great young talent.

Plans for the balance of the Canada Day celebration are nearing completion, with one final meeting for the committee on June 17 to wrap up the details.

My Wild Alberta features hunting and fishing information, as well as a discussion board, events calendar, stories, videos, Alberta's hunting and fishing regulations, and links to the Government of Alberta's online licensing site, <https://www.albertarelm.com>. It will also highlight key initiatives and programs of the stakeholder organizations.

Clandonald 4-H sweep District Heifer Show

By Vicki Brooker
Staff Writer

A brother and sister from Clandonald 4-H Beef Club left Goodridge recreation grounds with a truckload of trophies and ribbons on Sunday, after a clean sweep of the honours in the St. Paul District 4-H Heifer Show.

Cole Goad showed the champion yearling heifer from a field of nine animals, to win the Elk Point Servus Credit Union trophy, and followed that up with a second championship in the cow-calf competition, for the Lakeland Maine Farms trophy. His heifer and his cow and calf combined to win the Richter Rocky Ridge Farms championship trophy in the herd class.

Kristen Goad showed the reserve champions in all three classes, for trophies from Patrick Mathiot and family, Rocky Red Angus and Genesis Homes Ltd.

Cole and Kristen then competed in the champion competition, with Cole's cow and calf winning the Supreme Champion Female trophy from Guy's Custom Silage and the BOS Oilfield Service banner, while his yearling heifer won the Reserve Champion banner from Heartland Fuels and the Fontaine "Carel" Farms trophy.

Conformation was judged by Brad Ambler.

Janel VanDerVoort judged showmanship and grooming.

The lone junior member in the show, Stephanie Bilodeau of Goodridge, received the Lawrence Kwiatkowski Enterprises trophy in grooming and the ATB Financial trophy in showmanship.

Intermediate grooming honours and the Dunning Simmental trophy went to Marc Mathiot of Goodridge, with Larissa Lupul of St. Paul placing second. Cole Goad won the senior grooming trophy from Goodridge 4-H Beef Club, with second place going to fellow Clandonald member Jock Ockerman.

April Ockerman of Clandonald won the intermediate showmanship competition for a trophy from L&D Chuckwagon, while Larissa Lupul placed second. Cole Goad won the senior showmanship award from Remi and Coral Tremblay and Kristen Goad came in second.

The card judging was marked by Raymond Gilbert, with Stephanie Bilodeau taking home the junior trophy from Mitchell Farms. April Ockerman won the David Thompson Professional Corporation in the intermediate group, while Denis Mathiot placed second. In the senior group, Kristen Goad won the TD Financial Group trophy, while brother Cole placed second.

Rachelle Lefebvre was the afternoon's mistress of ceremonies, and ringmasters were Patrick Mathiot and Henri Lefebvre.

Riverland Adventure Challenge a huge success

By Vicki Brooker
Staff Writer

The Riverland Adventure Challenge was "a huge success," according to organizing committee spokesperson Sheila Thompson. "Everyone loved the black powder send-off and that there were 40 canoes at the river, ready to go."

The sendoff included a snack of freshly baked bannock from Kokum's Bakery, jam and tea to fuel the paddlers on the first leg of their journey, as they traveled the North Saskatchewan River from the landing below Fort George and Buckingham House to Riverview, near the Canadian Salt Lindbergh facility. Participants then ran or walked up the Iron Horse Trail about two miles to the Lindbergh staging area, where they collected their bikes and sped westward up the trail, later turning south on a district road and making their way back to the Forts, where a meal of bison from Lakeland Meats, outstanding potato salad from the Empress Restaurant and a saskatoon dessert from Golden Loaf Bakery awaited them.

Participants from Edmonton and St. Paul made up the majority of the 38 teams, and both Lakeland College and Portage College were represented, she noted.

"Portage College brought a voyageur canoe."

The youngest participant was a seven-year-old-girl, who did the whole route "under her own steam," Thompson said. "She got such a cheer from the others when she rode across the finish line."

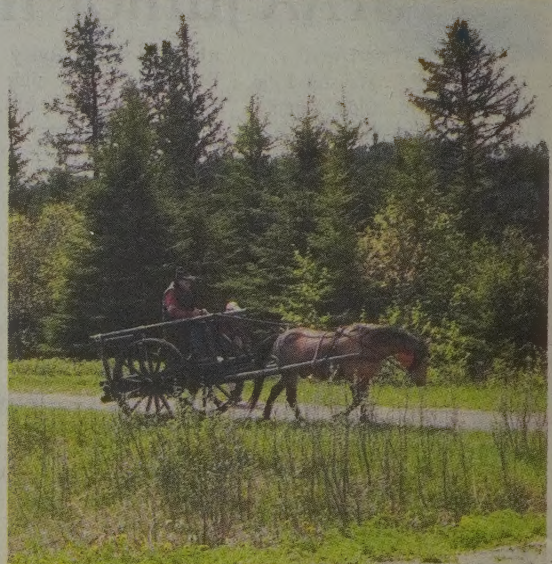

Thompson said there was "a real feeling of camaraderie among the participants. They were so delighted that we did this and many said they want to do it again."

Marianne Price did a survey of participants and received 47 responses with "top marks across the board," Thompson said.

The perfect weather conditions "were a big asset," she added.

Riverland Adventure Challenge participants canoed down the North Saskatchewan (above), ran north on the Iron Horse Trail past the Canadian Salt facility (below) and passed by Roy Scott and his Red River cart (right) on the way to the Lindbergh staging area (middle right) where they retrieved their bicycles. Volunteer Lorne Young checks in Lauren Beaulieu of St. Paul, the first participant to head up the trail.
